Cowal Open Studios Invited Artists 2014

Dunoon Burgh Hall will host a joint exhibition of work by John Cunningham RGI D.Litt (1926 - 1998) and Dan Ferguson RSW RGI (1925 - 1993) which will then move to the RGI Kelly Gallery in Glasgow.

THE AIRDRIE BOYS

Dan Ferguson and John Cunningham were born in Lanarkshire and educated at Airdrie Academy where their life-long friendship was formed, hence the title of this COS exhibition - The Airdrie Boys.

John frequently stayed in the Strachur area to paint Cowal, producing many fine works of Newton, Loch Eck and the surrounding countryside.

From the late 1970's onwards Dan and his wife Meg spent a great deal of time at their converted chapel in Glendaruel, inspiring Dan to produce many sensitive and evocative paintings.

Both artists studied drawing and painting at the Glasgow School of Art and went on to become senior lecturers there. They exhibited in the same major shows in Scotland; the RGI, RSA and RSW and both were active members of The Glasgow Art Club.

118 Douglas Street, Glasgow G2 4ET. Opening hours noon till 3pm. Please Check opening times on our website www.cowalopenstudios.co.uk

The exhibition is being curated by Anne Ferguson and Jacqueline Orr RSW RGI.

COS would like to thank the families of both artists for all their help and support.

Chocolate Cafe

We are a small, family run, chocolate business based in 196 Argyll St Dunoon.

We offer a range of delicious artisan chocolates, figures and bespoke creations.

Here at Caramiche we believe you don't need an excuse to treat yourself. Why not visit our chocolate cafe, sit down, relax and enjoy the picturesque view of St John's Church.

We offer a wide range of specialty teas, coffees and hot chocolate made from melted milk or dark chocolate.

We look forward to welcoming you back next year,
25 - 28 September 2015

New artists always welcome, join us in 2015
